

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

Miss Edna Stamm, 16, struck and killed by train in River Forest.

Wrecked auto abandoned at Jackson blvd. and Clinton st., after collision with auto truck.

T. J. Johnston, 11400 Watt av., found dead in bed. Thought to have taken poison.

Mrs. Minnie Schmidt, 46, Argo, Ill., died today of burns received Sept. 12. Ignited by gas stove.

L. F. Hahne, stepfather of Nellie Snyder, 11, who was taken by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harris, may swear out warrants charging them with kidnapping.

Police arrested Wm. Sany, 3207 Lowe av., whom they believe is member of office building robbery gang. Detected coming down fire escape of Willoughby bldg.

Vernon Palmer, 17, demanded $50 from Mrs. W. H. Kessler, 831 LaSalle av., or threatened to marry her daughter, Jeann, 14. Arrested.

Evanston council puzzled as to what to do with squirrels.

Sergt. Horace H. Elliott, police bureau of records, promoted to lieutenant. Assigned to Fillmore st.

Mrs. Effie Burkhart, 31, 1524 Van Buren st., swallowed poison. May recover.

Saharot, dancer, finally admitted she's through with husband, Fritz Von Frantzius.

Perry C. Davis, Chicago janitor-aviator, died from injuries received in aeroplane fall at county fair, Mauston, Wis., Sept. 5.

Mary Ponkogich, 3, 223 Pullman av., dead. Played with matches.

Alfred Becker, 8, 1455 Solon pl., injured by auto of W. E. McCarren, Austin.

Judge Fry denied report that "pull" had influence in speeders' court.

Matthew Jensen, 6, 4721 Champlain av., seriously hurt by auto of Dr. Stewart Johnson, 4005 Grand blvd.

Caroline Joyner, shot in right lung, and Sam Sewell, 1447 State st., shot in arm by Andrew Carter. All colored.

Young People's Civic League has already laid plans for sane New Year's Eve.

Anthony Nelson, 35, 4105 W. Van Buren st., found dead at home. Thought to have taken carbolic acid.

Chas. Hahn, 20, 810 Monroe st., Evanston, robbed of $22.50, stud worth $21 and $5 ring by two negroes.

Harry Nelson, 4727 Forrestville av., clerk, suicide. Carbolic acid.

Chas. Fell, arrested for being soused, said he drank to kill pain in bum tooth. Judge Scully sentenced him to have it pulled.

Judge Newcomer urges one central building for Municipal Court.

Pearl Hobson, 16, 1239 W. 31st st., probably fatally hurt by fall from 31st st. car.

Mayor Harrison in Canada for two weeks' fishing trip.

Gambling squad raided cigar store at 55 W. VanBuren st. Twelve men arrested.

Coroner's jury found Mrs. Grace Scott, 3205 Cottage Grove av., who killed herself, was insane from love.

Wm. E. Cadmus, national organizer of Bull Moose party, in Chicago for conference with local progressive leaders.

Reginald Ward arrested on charge of stealing $3.40 worth of goods from The Fair.

Judge McDonald, Criminal Court, latest jurist to refuse case of Daniel Donahue, Aileen Heppner and Isaac Stiefel, charged with conspiracy against Clarence S. Funk.

Patricia Roapika, 559 W. 14th st., who lost arm and leg and had skull fractured by being struck by I. C. train, will live.

County Board dismissed charges against John J. Brittain, contractor.

Rev. W. G. Hamner, pastor of St. Charles, Ill., Free Methodist Church,